

authorized on road from Texarkana to Waco ($8,000 a mile), $2,000,000; no securities can be issued, except upon completed road."

Pearis, Deacon and Evansville Railroad Company $750,000 first mortgage bonds due September 1, 1890; $1,000,000 second mortgage bonds due January 1, 1890; $1,000,000 of the Company's road; $750,000 6 per cent income bonds—not accumulation issue upon the same division as the first mortgage above named. When the additional sixty miles of the Evansville division are completed the funded debt of the Company will be as follows: First mortgage 6 per cent bonds, line from Pekin to Mattoon, $1,287,000; First 6 per cent income bonds, Evansville Division, $1,470,000; Income bonds, line from Pekin to Mattoon, $858,000; Income bonds, Evansville Division, $1,230,000.

Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad Company $1,000,000 income bonds bearing 7 per cent interest, payable from earnings. If sufficient, in my opinion, to meet the interest, $1,000,000 second mortgage on 121 miles of railroads, and the first mortgage of $1,000,000. The company's railroad is what was known as the Illinois division of the old Chicago, Danville and Vincennes Railroad.

Messrs. George K. Sistare's Sons are offering for sale the 6 1/2 per cent bonds of the town of Danbury, Conn. The bonds at par, 1885 and 1890.
